Stockholm, August 3.

OUR Magistrates and Burghers have chosen Eight Representatives of this City for the Dyet which is to be opened the Beginning of next Month. Count Bonde, President of the College of Mines, who was the Beginning of last Year sent as Head of a Commission that was appointed to inquire into the Grounds of the many Complaints that were made to the last Dyet of great Abuses committed both by the Civil and Military Officers in Finland, returned from that Dutchy some Days ago; and it is said he will be a Candidate for the Post of Land-Marshal at the approaching Dyet. On the 1st Instant, being the Anniversary of His Britannick Majesty's Accession to the Throne, His Minister Mr. Poyntz gave a very splendid Entertainment to the British Factory and others of that Nation at this Place; and in the Evening a Ball.

Hague, Aug. 27. N. S. M. d'Obdam has taken his Seat in the Assembly of the States General, in the Room of the deceased M. Dorp, as Deputy from the College of Nobles; and the Baron de Langerack, Member of that College, succeeds M. d'Obdam in the Council of State. The Marquess de Fenelon, the French Ambassadour, has communicated to the several foreign Ministers the Advice he has received from his Court of the Queen of France's being perfectly recovered from her late Indisposition.

Treasury-Chambers, Aug. 18, 1726.

The Right Honourable Sir Robert Walpole, Chancellour of His Majesty's Exchequer and Knight of the most noble Order of the Garter, having received a Letter signed W. T. This is to acquaint the Person who wrote the same, that he may attend the said Chancellour of the Exchequer at his House at Chelsea, any Day (except Tuesdays and Thursdays) before Eight of the Clock in the Morning.

The several Deputations under the Hand of his Grace the late Duke of St. Albans, Master Marshal and Surveyour of His Majesty's Hawks, being void, all Persons concerned are desired to take Notice thereof accordingly.

The Court of Directors of the Bank of England give Notice, That they have made an Agreement with the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to Circulate the Exchequer Bills made forth, or to be made forth, pursuant to several Acts of Parliament for that Purpose now in Force, for One Year, computed from the 24th Day of July 1726, to the 25th Day of July 1727.

The Court of Directors of the Bank of England give Notice, That the Transfer-Books for Bank-Stock will be shut from Wednesday the 7th of September next, till Friday the 7th of October following.
